Descripción del perfil

My name is Camilo, I'm a 25 years old, creative Visual Artist Engineer, native of Medellín, Colombia. Passionate for digital entrepreneurship, design and video storytelling. Currently running a start-up digital agency working on freelance design and web development projects on Fiverr. I like to call myself as a Digital Nomad who enjoys kitesurfing at sunsets, hustling to get things done right, and getting lost in new cities. I talk and encourage on subjects like, digital nomads lifestyle, remote work and entrepreneurship.

Make It Work Remotely

Menos de 1 Hora

Ever wonder how the leaders of today got their start? How people have turned from thinkers into doers, kick-starting their businesses, earning more success, and flourishing throughout their hustle? In today's society where time is money, having the ability to work from anywhere can transform your career. No longer do you need to be constrained by a 9-5 job, or limited to the opportunities in your local area. It's time to harness your talent to work smarter, not harder. Let's boost this talk and connect local entrepreneur with digital nomads, and teach types, tools, and ways to work remotely. We will speak about tools and platforms like Asana, Trello, And Co, Fiverr, Slack that can help entrepreneurs make their projects work remotely.
